PRESS KIT — “ANIMAL”

Electro / Hip-hop / Pop · Paris · Album out September 19, 2026 · Independent (TuneCore)

A masked duo broadcasting from a ruined future: hybrid, raw, futuristic electro-pop.

BIO

Maad Avenue is a Paris-based duo crafting hybrid, raw, futuristic electro-pop where hip-hop meets rock. Behind masked personas and a post-apocalyptic aesthetic, the group builds a world of its own — part manga, part sci-fi — around a recurring biomechanical android figure and references like NieR:Automata. Following the single “Sunday” (June 2026), the duo unveils “Animal,” an eleven-track debut album, fully independent. Authenticity comes first: getting people to truly listen, building a real community, and bringing these songs to the live stage. The release is celebrated in Paris on the night the album drops.
